

Composite Three-Quarter Armor for a Cuirassier

Date
1600–1635

Primary Maker
Southern German

Medium
blackened and polished steel and brass with modern leather and paint

Description
German, but in the "Hungarian" fashion. For a cuirassier, but composite and reworked into a black and white armor. Of different styles, but partly in the "Hungarian" and "Netherlandish" fashion.