

Bottle with a Figure Emerging from Corn

Date

1000–1450 CE

Medium

ceramic

Description

Black ceramic vessel with face emerging from overall corncob motif topped by a smooth spout gradually flaring outward and a smooth round base. The full face has coffee bean eyes and mouth, bulbous nose, and a low relief diagonal line from each eye to jaw. Two small holes appear near the top of the vessel, one on either side of the head.

Dimensions

17.8 x 14.6 cm (7 x 5 3/4 in.)